

Study Abroad 201 Outline

1

Introduction

- Who I am
- How to get the experience you deserve
- Who this guide is for
- How domestic only students think
- The psychology of long term travel

2

Scholarship strategy

- How a scholarship would change your experience
- Misconception
- My story
- How to get your own scholarship

3

Study abroad with an edge

- Why to study abroad with a purpose
- What project could you do?
- Testing a project

4

Study abroad with an edge cont.

- Why some don't make it count
- Frontloading some of the work
- How to stand out right away
- Email etiquette

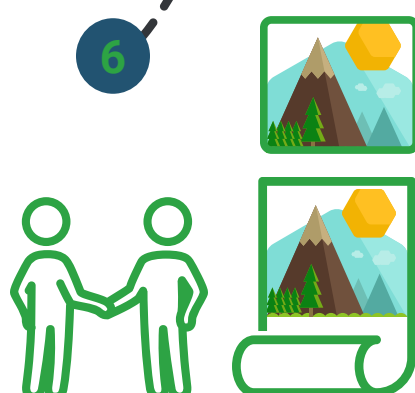

5

Adventures

“ The smell of someone who has ridden the back of the wind, Peter. The smell of a hundred fun summers, with sleeping in trees and adventures with Indians and Pirates. Oh remember, Peter? The world was ours. We could do everything or nothing. All it had to be was anything 'cause it was always us. — Tinkerbell in Hook

6

Wrapping it all together

- Coming home
- Maintaining relationships
- Polishing your resume (yawn)
- Studying abroad again
- Getting ready for graduate school or real life

